TAKING IT TO THE PEOPLE

A GREAT deal is being said nowadays thruout this country about taking public problems direct to the people. This is what President Taft and Col. Roosevelt have been doing lately, and what all those interested in great public questions must do more and more as the years go by.

In the forthcoming Chautauqua here many important problems will be discussed. It is impossible for all the people in the United States to attend any one Chautauqua. The Chautauqua must be taken to the people eventually in nearly every county of the land where the population warrants it. The Redpath Bureau under whose direction the Chautauqua in this county is being given this year, is the greatest factor in the world today in this work of carrying a Chautauqua Program to the people. More than 250 Chautauquas are operated under Redpath management and the number is rapidly increasing.

Send word to all your friends to come to our forthcoming Chautauqua. Especially if they have never before attended a Chautauqua program, it will be a revelation to them.

I Will Stand the Percheron Stallion

BRILLIANT D.

For the season of 1912, at my mother's place near Richmond, on Big Hill Pike at

$15 to Insure a Living Colt

PEDIGREE.—BRILLIANT D. is a Percheron colt, bred by W. R. Grimley of Sweetwater, Ill., color gray, foaled April 6, 1906. Sired by Gaul's Percheron Stallion, imported by Dunham, Fletcher & Coleman, of Wayne, Ill. Gaul's sire by Eretat, he by Volcan, he by Blenheim, he by Volcan, he by Brilliant. Dam Mag Black mare by Kocou, he by Jas. Brown's Brilliant, a prize winner at the Chicago World's Fair, he by Brilliant, one of the most noted Percherons of either France or America, for which Mr. Dunham was offered a very long price to let him go back to France. So it will be seen that BRILLIANT D. is very deeply bred in the brilliant blood, and is fully entitled to the name of Brilliant.

I wish to impress upon parties having mares to breed, that BRILLIANT D. weighs 1700 pounds. I believe the time is at hand when it takes weight to bring the money. Readers of the Breeder's Gazette will notice that within the last few days large numbers of Percheron mares have been sold for prices around and exceeding $500. Care taken to prevent accidents, but no responsibility should any occur. Lien retained on colt until service fee is paid, or bred to another horse.

THE PROMISING YOUNG JACK

Long Tom

Will also make the season at the same time and place, at

$10 to Insure a Living Colt

Money due when colt is foaled, mare parted with or bred to another horse of Jack.

This jack is of big bone, good head and ear, and must be seen to be appreciated. His colts which have been foaled, are of exceptional size and quality. Long Tom will be the male world what Peter the Great and Rex Peavine are to the trotting and saddle horse world. He is by Wm. Todd's big Jack, he by Marmaduke. His first dam by Big Andy, he by Tom Reese, he by Robt. Billington. 2d dam by Lear's Napoleon.

Mares kept on grass at 10 cents per day. Not responsible for accidents, but all care taken to prevent same.

Will also stand my Silver Creek Red Boar Hog at $1.00 cash.

Must Believe It

When Well Known Richmond People Tell It So Plainly.

When public endorsement is made by a representative citizen of Richmond, the proof is positive. You must believe it. Read this testimony. Every sufferer of kidney weakness, every man, woman or child with kidney trouble will do well to read the following:

"Claude Harris, 151 N. Estill Ave., Richmond, Ky., says: 'I found Doan's Kidney Pills to be a fine remedy for my kidneys. My back was lame and my kidneys were out of order. The trouble kept me awake at night and I felt miserable during the day. Since I used Doan's Kidney Pills, obtained at Middleton's Drug Store, I have felt better. The action of the kidneys was regulated and the pains ceased.'"

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other. 1m

Col. Roosevelt made this statement in a speech in Maryland a few days ago and it is true as truth itself:

"If you let a boss govern you, he won't govern for his health. He'll not govern you in your own interests; he'll be for himself."

Each age of our lives has its joys. Old people should be happy, and they will be if Chamberlain's Tablets are taken to strengthen the digestion and keep the bowels regular. These tablets are mild and gentle in their action and especially suitable for people of middle age and older. For sale by all dealers. 1m

Bryan As A Preacher.

(Louisville Herald.)

Whether one holds like faith with William Jennings Bryan or no, there is much that is admirable in the sight of a man so prominently associated with public affairs and so actively interested in the rough and tumble of political life, turning aside for a day to give his strong and simple testimony to the virtue of a creed that he shares with millions of his humbler and less gifted fellows.

Too often a certain price of intellect and place operates in men of his attainment to make them silent concerning the things of religion. They fear that they may be misunderstood or ridiculed. A false modesty conceals their belief in what they learned from their mothers, and silences the powerful advocacy they might lend to the faith they have privately cherished since childhood.

It is, therefore, gratifying to hear a man who has received from his party and the people on three occasions a magnificent tribute of confidence in his political opinions exercise the prestige thus achieved in order to speak a good word for the church of his fathers and the supreme value of religion.

This country has been happy in having as its leading citizens, men whose sympathy was with organized religion. President Garfield was an elder and preacher in his own denomination. President Harrison was prominent in the councils of his church. President McKinley deserved and enjoyed the love of his religiousists. Roosevelt and Taft have both been men of sincere religious sympathy.

But William Jennings Bryan stands out as the preacher-statesman. Few men have been more frank, more earnest or more eloquent in defense of their faith than he.

His work on Sunday was heavier than the average preacher's share. In the early morning he addressed a Sunday school; he followed this with a sermon in the afternoon at the Army, he paid a splendid tribute to the church; at night an audience of men greeted him at the Masonic Theater, where he reiterated the claims of religion upon manhood, and he finished the day by talking to the crowd of down-and-outs assembled in the Hope Rescue Mission. And this last effort was the full story of the day's activities. In the crowded program it got scant justice at the hands of the reporters. When we read the brief account given in the news columns we could not help regretting that, for the night, we had not been the reporter assigned to this unique service. The chance to write that story, if the city editor had given us swing and space, would have been worth having.

Bryan, cool, calm, fan in hand, talking in simple earnestness of Christ to the motley throng gathered from the streets, is a picture that appeals to our imagination. It appealed to their hearts, for the reporter tells us men wept as they had heard again the old, familiar gospel story from the lips of the great orator and statesman.

Never in his career has Bryan done a bigger thing than that. As he grows older and looks back upon the events of a life crowded with interest and marked with honor, we venture to say that he will recall few nights with greater satisfaction than that on which he talked so man to man about the "Man of Galilee" in Brother Bruce's Mission Hall.

For some of us, who are still simple enough in spirit to believe in the things we were taught as children, it is a source of strength to know that men of big minds and wide experience, men who have tasted and tested life in many of its phases, share our faith, and return with assurance of being satisfied to the old, old story, that through centuries of telling, retains its power to touch and quicken the soul.

Perry, Rexall Druggist.

Greeley on Baseball.

Just before Horace Greeley started for the Cincinnati convention in 1872 he received a letter asking his opinion about baseball. "You ought to plant baseball early in the spring so as to insure their getting ripe before fall. Most baseballs are picked too green and consequently are very hard, and we have heard of a great many balls being foul, which we attribute to the same cause. I am told the best way to cook them is to have a good stiff batter and send them in hot. Send me a few of the fly balls for seed and next year I can tell you more about them. Yours liberally, Horace Greeley."—Exchange.

WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN'S ESTIMATE OF THE CHAUTAUQUA MOVEMENT.
[Written by William Jennings Bryan.]

THE Chautauqua affords one of the best opportunities now presented to the public speaker for the discussion of questions of interest to the people. The audience is a select one and always composed of the thoughtful element of the community, and as they pay admission they stay to hear. I believe that a considerable part of the progress that is now being made along the line of moral and political reforms is traceable to the influence of the Chautauqua. An increasing number of men of prominence are availing themselves of the Chautauqua platform, and I believe that the number will continue to grow.

GRAND OPERA STAR ON CHAUTAUQUA PROGRAM.

M. LE BRUN, who is to appear at our Chautauqua as the star of the Le Brun Grand Opera company, has a repertoire of fifty operas and sings in four different languages. She has appeared at the Wagner festival performance at Worms as Elsa in "Lohengrin" and as Elizabeth in "Tannhauser" at Innsbruck. She also appeared in Carlsruhe as Leonora in "Il Trovatore" and as Marguerite in "Faust" at Nantes, France; also took part in a festival performance at Trieste. Mme. Le Brun studied under Julius Gavarotti in Milan at the age of eighteen. She also studied under Ugo Angeli, her teacher, therefore, being all in the pure old Italian school. She came to America with the Royal Italian Opera company and played a season in New York. Here Mr. Henry Savage heard her and engaged her for a three years' contract as prima donna of his then English Grand Opera company, after which she returned to Europe. For the past three years she has had her own company, has made New York her headquarters and has played all the big cities of America.

Young Women

Read what Cardui did for Miss Myria Engler, of Fairbairn, Minn. She says: "Let me tell you how much good Cardui has done me. As a young girl, I always had to suffer so much with all kind of pain. Sometimes, I was so weak that I could hardly stand on my feet. I got a bottle of Cardui, at the drug store, and as soon as I had taken a few doses, I began to feel better. Today, I feel as well as anyone can."

TAKE The CARDUI Woman's Tonic

Are you a woman? Then you are subject to a large number of troubles and irregularities, peculiar to women, which, in time, often lead to more serious trouble.

A tonic is needed to help you over the hard places, to relieve weakness, headache, and other unnecessary pains, the signs of weak nerves and over-work.

For a tonic, take Cardui, the woman's tonic. You will never regret it, for it will certainly help you. Ask your druggist about it. He knows. He sells it.
